Nashville recording artist headlines the TIB Bank Celebrate Cape Coral Block

POSTED: February 19, 2009

The Chamber of Commerce of Cape Coral announces Nashville recording artist Ken Randolph will be the musical headliner at the TIB Bank Celebrate Cape Coral on Saturday, March 7, at Big John's Town Center on Southeast 47th Terrace.

A native of Alabama, Randolph performed on a platinum album with super group Alabama. In 2007, Gov. Bob Riley named him as Alabama's Ambassador of Music. Randolph was also invited to perform for President Bush at the White House in 2008 and in 2009 along with Charlie Daniels and Jeff Cook, two of his musical heroes to perform "Tribute to a Soldier," a song he wrote.

"Randolph will be signing autographs from 5-6 p.m. at the Block Party and will begin performing right after the parade around 7:30 p.m.," said Bob Knickman, special events director for the Chamber of Commerce of Cape Coral in a prepared statement.

The TIB Bank Celebrate Cape Coral Block Party & Night Parade, 4 - 10 p.m. Saturday, March 7, at Big John's Town Center on Southeast 47th
